

RU Recovery Ministries

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Monday, June 17, 2019

Church leaders from across the country are coming to Rockford, IL to be trained on how to help those struggling with addiction.

ROCKFORD, IL — RU Recovery Ministries is a faith-based addiction recovery class founded in Rockford, Illinois. With over 20 years of experience, RU has grown into an international organization that trains churches across America and in many foreign countries on how to help the addicted in their communities to recover.

RU Recovery Ministries is hosting their annual international training conference on the campus of North Love Baptist Church in Rockford, IL. Every year this conference trains community leaders and pastors on the latest tools and methods for ministering to the addicted. This year over 200 guests from around the US and some foreign countries are expected to attend.

The Recovery Conference 2019 is taking place June 24-26 at North Love Baptist Church 5301 E. Riverside Blvd. Rockford, IL 61114

For Additional Information you can visit our Press Kit page online at: <https://rurecovery.com/presskit/>

If you are in need of further information or a statement you can call our Executive Director Tim Farley at 815.209.2803 or email farley@reformu.com.

*For any questions regarding media or marketing, please contact
Brad Woodbury woodbury@reformu.com
Chief Financial Officer/Director of Development*

*Benjamin Smith smith@reformu.com
Marketing Director*